SIGNED CHRISTMAS SONGS AND CAROLS

In December a team of volunteers will be signing Christmas songs and Carols at various venues to raise money for the local Deaf Children's Society group.

If you would like to join us you would be very welcome, no previous knowledge necessary, practices start this Tuesday, 7th November, at Trinity, 7.00–8.30pm. Please see or speak to Jayne Crossman for details.

LOST PROPERTY

Please have a good look through the green box under the table in the Welcome Café. Anything not collected by the end of the month will go to The Open House.

Ministry Team Meetings

Please note there will be two meetings this month: this Wednesday 8th and 29th November.

Thank you.

GLYNDLEY MANOR

Please note there are a number of brochures in the Welcome Area about Ellet Ministries, including an invitation to a free day at Glyndley in November and publicity for an event linked to Premier Radio Station. Please speak to Peter Davey for more details.

UPHOLSTERY We have obtained a piece of material to recover the piano stool in the Crawley Down to match the chairs. Does anyone feel able to carry out this work? If so please contact Douglas Bentley.

RUNNING THE RACE:
WHO WILL PICK UP THE BATON?
THIS SATURDAY, 11TH NOVEMBER

Everybody is encouraged to support "Running the Race : Who will pick up the Baton?" this Saturday by joining in prayer to cover the night and seek a moving of the Holy Spirit. A room (probably the Crawley Down) will be designated as the prayer room for those who wish to pray on the premises. Please encourage us by letting us know how you can support this venture, and if you haven't said you're coming please contact Mike Bartrop urgently. If you would like to invite friends from other churches please do so, there are flyers in the rack in the Welcome Area, but again we'd appreciate knowing numbers in advance.
