NEW WINE WOMEN

24th March, 9.30 – 4.00pm, Westminster Central Hall

Theme: Waves of Mercy, Waves of Grace

Speaker: Jo Gambi. Jo and her husband Rob are the first married couple to climb the "Seven Summits" (the highest mountains on all seven continents). The couple achieved these feats while Rob was in remission from his second bout of cancer. Come and hear more, enjoy worship, teaching and opportunities to receive ministry. Cost: £20 per person (£18 online). NB. Only food bought at on-site café can be consumed on premises (i.e. I think we pray for good weather and eat our picnics outside...). As the venue is so easily accessible by train/foot I am not proposing to arrange coach hire this year, and as there's no advantage in making a group booking to share cost of coach, you may want to book your own ticket online (www.new-wine.org). If you haven't got access to the internet or would just rather I booked on your behalf please let me have payment ASAP. I'll look into group/individual rail fares later. Julia Harris.

LADIES AWAY DAY, 28TH APRIL, 10AM– 4PM

Ladies! We have some catching up to do with the many men's events being arranged, so here is the next one... An Away Day for us, in the comfort of West Watch House at Chelwood Gate. Christine Perkin from New Wine will be leading the day and all we will have to do is relax and take in what God has in store for us. Price: £17 plus speaker's expenses (Tbc). The bad news is that numbers are limited to 30, so it will be first come first served. Please speak to Julia

UPDATE ON GWEN Gwen is now in East Surrey Hospital, Redhill, on Abinger Ward. She's expected to be there for a little while and then, hopefully, be brought to the Queen Victoria Hospital here in East Grinstead. She continues to improve each day, but very slowly, and can now communicate, very slightly, with her family. She's not ready for visitors yet, but cards would now be nice. Please keep her firmly in your prayers. Geoff.
