WELCOME CAFE

Many thanks to Michael Stevenson for his leadership of the café team for the past year.

JUNE BURT is the new café co-ordinator.

PASTORAL VISITORS

The magazines are ready for collection, please collect yours today. Thank you.

NEXT SUNDAY

The 10.45 service will include the baptism, by full immersion, of Zane Oliver and Chris Brooks. Please come and support these chaps as they publicly declare Jesus as Lord.

CHURCH FLOWERS

Thank you to Barbara McMichael for today's flowers, which she would like to be in memory of her daughter, Patricia.

MONTHLY MAGAZINE ON CD

The monthly magazine is now available recorded onto a CD for anyone with a visual impairment. If you would like to receive a copy please speak to your pastoral visitor or contact Angie Kenward.

We also need volunteers to operate the recording machine and read the magazine. This would be on a rota approx every 5 to 6 months. Please speak to Angie if you help with this.

WEDDING Please pray for Kim Naylor and Finn Cunningham as they marry in Hull on Saturday (30th June).

LADIES

Away Day at West Watch House
Saturday 20th October

Sounds early, but if you are interested please let me know, as places are limited.

Cost: £20 but no money needed yet. Julia Harris.

PAULINE COLLIER, our wonderful cleaner was off sick last week and may/may not be back this week. If you are able to help cover some of her duties either this week or at other times when Pauline is on holiday/sick leave please speak to Tony Styles. It's just possible substantial offers of help could be paid if that's any incentive! Thank you.

CHRISTIAN AID

Trinity collected a total of £1987.93 through this year's street collections. £1000 of this was gift aided and all the roads were covered, so well done and thank you to those who gave up their time and energies to collect – a great result! Val & Peter Russell.

(PS. Thank you to Val & Peter for organising and counting all that money, yet again... Ed.)
